MACGREGOR MACINTOSH ANSWERS CALL TO SERVICE

Captain Macgregor F. Macintosh, member in the Provincial House for The Islands constituency, who lost his right arm in the last great war, and who has had considerable experience in the permanent staff of the Princess Patricia Regiment, is again in uniform, in answer to a summons for his services as an instructor, which position he is eminently qualified to fill. He felt that as he is qualified and can be of immediate service in this capacity, he would respond at once.

Following is a message The Review received from Captain Macintosh prior to his departure for Alberta:

Sir:—Through the medium of your columns I wish to inform the electors of "The Islands Riding" that I have been called up on military service, and am leaving to join my unit in Calgary on January 13th.

I wish to thank the electors for the support and co-operation which they have afforded me since my election and to assure them that as their member I will continue to work for "The Islands" and for British Columbia.

I regret that time does not permit me to visit the different parts of the riding before I leave, but I hope to have that opportunity when the House is again in session in Victoria.

MACGREGOR MACINTOSH,
Captain, M.L.A.

Dons Uniform Again!

PICTURES AT REST HAVEN MUCH ENJOYED

According to previous announcement in the Review, last Thursday evening at Rest Haven, J. S. Barrow gave a delightful evening to guests, friends in the community and members of the hospital staff, with an exhibition of moving pictures of his own taking, both plain and colored, chief among which were scenes from the exposition at San Francisco; a number showing old missions in California founded by early Spanish religious orders and beautiful coastline seascapes as observed from the highway. Pictures of many beautiful flowers photographed in the famous Butchart Gardens and in other private grounds on the Saanich Peninsula. These were followed by a series taken on a trip up the British Columbia coast and which served to remind us that it is by no means necessary to go abroad for the enjoyment of a vacation amidst the beauties of nature.

SECRETARY'S REPORT SHOWS HOW FIRE BOYS ARE ASSISTED

Following is the report of the secretary-treasurer of the Firemen's Benefit Association given at the annual meeting held Tuesday evening, Jan. 16th, in Westley Hall: The Firemen's Benefit Association was formed on January 10th, 1939, for the purpose of giving assistance to the boys of the North Saanich Volunteer Fire Brigade. There were three meetings held throughout the year, two in Westley Hall and one at the Sidney Super Service showroom, kindly lent for the occasion by Messrs. Murray and Anderson.

At the inauguration meeting it was decided to ask each organization or society in the district of North Saanich to appoint two representatives to the association and this was readily complied with and 27 representatives appointed. It was also decided to hold a Firemen's Ball March 17th and the executive together with Fire Protection Committee of the Sidney Businessmen's Association were appointed as a committee to work with the Fire Brigade boys to do everything (Continued from Page Two)

The president, J. J. White, was in the chair and opened the meeting with the annual report. He then called upon the secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Hugh J. McIntyre, for her annual report, which is published elsewhere in this issue so that the public will get a clear idea of how the firemen were assisted during the year.

It was regularly moved and seconded that the new executive take up the matter of first aid for the (Please turn to Page Two)

UNLICENCED DOG WILL BRING A PENALTY

Dear reader, have you secured a licence for your pet pooch for the year 1940? If not, take a tip and do not delay securing same as we understand the Provincial Police are about to check up on all how-ows in the area.

If your doggie has the bad habit of chasing sheep it is well to see about the matter immediately.

Here is a couple of paragraphs from the Sheep Protection Act, which we are informed will be rigidly enforced in this area:

"It shall be lawful for any person to kill any dog in respect of which no licence under the provisions of this Act is in force."

"Every person who possesses or harbours an unlicensed dog is liable to a penalty not exceeding $25."

Such subscriptions, however, can be taken subject to allotment."

signed up and a committee appointed to arrange details.

And Still Coming In!

Last week an appeal was made through the columns of the Review for books and magazines to be forwarded to crews of the Merchant Columbia leaving the British Columbia ports for the war zone. This appeal was made by the Provincial Police, they believing that while a good many societies devote their efforts towards helping men of other services, very little attention appears to have been given to those engaged in this less spectacular duty.

The response to the appeal has been good, already the local constable, D. S. E. Thomson, has received a big pile of magazines, and another large pile of books and magazines are now waiting and we are informed by South Saanich readers that they are sending more.

If you can spare books or magazines for this worthy purpose, just bring or send them to the Review office and Constable Thomson will do the rest.

FINE LOOM TO BE RAFFLED IN AID OF THE SOLARIUM

PENDER ISLAND, Jan. 17.—"The charities that soothe, and heal, and bless, lie scattered at the feet of men like flowers."

And one of the charities thus aptly described by Wordsworth is bound up in the care of the sick.

The Solarium, which is largely dependent upon donations, has as its office the care of crippled children. Recently, the Solarium has come upon hard times and the need for funds to continue its work has become acute.

Among the efforts being made to meet the needs of the Solarium is that of the Pender Island Women's Institute in organizing the raffling of a fine loom, locally manufactured. Books of tickets are distributed among many institutes of the Gulf Islands and nearby centres. The draw will be made soon, so be sure and get your ticket now!

"But," you may say, "I cannot weave! I don't know how to weave and probably never will! What use is a loom to me?"

Here is the answer: If you win this loom and do not want it the Pender Island Women's Institute guarantees to buy it from you—and for $10.00! So, make haste and get a ticket.

This weaving business appears to be singularly interesting. Weavers will tell you that the "war" is not always the curve in a piece of (Please turn to Page Three.)

58 GUESTS AT MEN'S SUPPER MEETING

The meeting of the Men's Supper Group held on Wednesday, last week, was a very successful event. Being ladies' night, 58 guests, including a goodly number of ladies, sat down to supper served by the Women's Association of St. Paul's United Church.

The speaker for the evening was Major J. S. Simon, who gave a most comprehensive survey of Australian defence problems, both from a civil and military point of view. In doing this he gave a graphic account of the relations between the federal and state governments and dealt fully with the financial set-up of the Commonwealth. At the conclusion of the address he answered questions which further elucidated several points and everybody went home with a fuller knowledge of Australia.

The chair was occupied by Rev. D. M. Perley.

The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, February 14th, in Wesley Hall, Sidney, where the above event took place.

LOCAL BOY IS JUDGED MOST USEFUL PLAYER IN CITY LEAGUE

Charlie Sansbury, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Sansbury, Experimental Station, has just been advised that he has been awarded the Wm. Jones Sportsmanship Trophy for display of best sportsmanship in the Lower Island Softball Association during 1939. The handsome trophy is now on display in the window of the Avenue Cafe, Sidney.

Here is what the Daily Colonist of Victoria has to say about the award:

"Charlie Sansbury, peppy young shortstop of Manager Bert Simpson's New Method Laundry soft-balls, provincial champions, is probably the happiest athlete in Greater Victoria today. Judged as the player displaying the best sportsmanship in the Lower Island Softball Association fixtures last season, Sansbury is the proud holder of the Wm. Jones Sportsmanship Trophy, a cup annually presented to the softballer named for the coveted award by a special committee. Presented by Wm. Jones, vice-president of the Lower Island Association, the cup was won in '36 and '37 by Jimmie Baker. The following year "Rosy" McLellan, then a pitcher for the Cameron Lumber nine, was awarded the trophy, and in 1939 the honor was conferred upon Charlie Sansbury."

Congratulations, Charlie—we knew you had it in you!

Also of interest to our readers will be the news that Raymond Byers, another local boy, a sensational pitcher in the same team as Sansbury, was awarded second prize for his good sportsmanship.

OFFICERS FOR ENSUING YEAR ELECTED AT GANGES

GANGES, Jan. 17.—The annual meeting of the Ganges Women's Institute took place Tuesday afternoon, last week in the committee room of the Mahon Hall. The president, Mrs. Charlesworth, presided.

Following the routine opening and adoption of the minutes of the last annual meeting, the treasurer presented a very interesting report of the past year's financial activities.

Correspondence was dealt with and included a report, which was read, on the Othon Scott Fund. A letter from Mrs. McLaughlan, superintendent of the C. Women's Institutes, who recently returned from a visit to the Ponce River, appealed for assistance for a family in that district in need of help and, especially, of warm clothing. This request was complied with. Another request responded to by the members, was from Pender Island, asking assistance with the selling of tickets for a loom, owned by the local Women's Institute there.

There was considerable discussion on Credit Union and Mrs. D. D. Fyvie read an article on the subject.

The five officers were then (Please turn to Page Three)

CORRECTION

Sir:—For the sake of accuracy and to prevent any misconception I should be glad if you will kindly make this correction:

In your current issue, in the report of the meeting of the North Saanich Branch of the Legion it reads that I was congratulated on my son having graduated as an aircraft mechanic in the R.A.F. As a matter of fact he is a metal rigger and not a mechanic—quite a different trade; and he has recently passed his exam as L.A.C. (Leading Aircraftman).

The committee reported it was a decided success, there being nearly 400 present and all having a real good time, the whole district and all organizations and societies giving wonderful support to the committee. The sum of $166.60 was turned over to the association—being the proceeds of the ball, after all expenses had been paid.

During the year insurance was placed on 12 firemen, 18 firemen's badges were purchased and three skull guards and three rubber coats obtained for the use of the boys when fighting fire. Considerable was spent on cleaning firemen's clothes, soiled or damaged while at fires, also considerable paid to local stores for refreshments for the boys on practise nights.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES AT GULF POINTS

Rev. W. M. Robertson of Metropolitan Tabernacle, Vancouver, and a crew of young men are cruising the Gulf Islands in a 114-foot yacht, "Evelyn M," and holding old-time religious meetings at various island points. They will be in Sidney, at the Gospel Hall, tonight (Wednesday); at Saturna Island Thursday, and Hope Bay, Pender Island, Friday. Dr. Jepson will take the second week of the cruise and will be at Mayne Island on Monday, 22nd; North Galiano, Tuesday, 23rd; Ladysmith next Wednesday, 24th; Gabriola, on Thursday, 25th, and finish in Nanaimo Friday night, 26th.

wet wood and, again, that the "woof" is not exclusively associated with malignant dogs. They will chatter volubly about heddles or bobbins or treadles. But, ultimately, the results of their labors must be the source of considerable (though, of course, not unChristian) envy.

The loom that is presently being raffled is made by R. S. W. Corbett, a resident on Pender Island for 38 years. It is of heavy iron frame with a good shed and long bender space and permits of the production of all manner of complicated patterns by the user. Indeed, it is of such substantial and orthodox construction that it will likely outlast any prospective owner.

PAINT CO. PUT ON FINE SHOW AT REST HAVEN

F. J. Pearce, publicity agent of the British North American Paint Co. Ltd., exhibited a number of reels of moving pictures in a well-filled lounge of the Rest Haven Hotel on Monday evening. How to produce very pleasing effects in home decoration by the use of Rapco products were shown to be remarkably simple in operation.

It was again a privilege to see the royal visit to Victoria in the well-known color film taken by Mr. Scott. These pictures of our King and Queen are just about as perfect as seeing them in real life. Views of the Pyramids, Alexandria, Cairo and Paris were also enjoyed. Evidence was not lacking that some of the comics displayed on the screen met with the full appreciation of the audience. A hearty vote of thanks to Mr. Pearce by Dr. Hanson concluded a delightful entertainment.
